Ms. Shipe and Messrs. McCullough and Thomas:

We have received no response to our September 28, 2010 letter asking whether the creditors' committee has investigated and evaluated potential avoidance actions in Warehouse 86 LLC's bankruptcy case. Please let us know by today at 5:00 p.m. whether the creditors' committee has investigated and evaluated potential avoidance actions. If we have not heard from you by 5:00 p.m., SCK Inc. and RadioShack Corporation will move for the appointment of a chapter 11 trustee.

As you know, the deadline to commence avoidance actions is November 4. Entry of an order appointing a chapter 11 trustee will extend the deadline to commence avoidance actions for another year.

We look forward to hearing from you.

Thanks,
Andrew

Re: In re Warehouse 86, LLC, Chapter 11, Case No. 08-03423-EE
(Bankr. S.D. Miss.)

Dear Madam or Sir:

We represent SCK Inc. and RadioShack Corporation in the chapter 11 bankruptcy of Warehouse 86 LLC. In accordance with a forthcoming settlement agreement between Warehouse 86, SCK, and RadioShack, SCK and RadioShack have an allowed, general, unsecured claim of $1,409,645.20 in the bankruptcy case.

Under the Chapter 11 Plan filed by Warehouse 86 on June 30, 2009, avoidance causes of action (e.g., fraudulent conveyances and preference transfers to creditors) are to be conditionally assigned to the unsecured creditors' committee for prosecution for the benefit of general, unsecured claimants. The deadline to commence avoidance actions is November 4, 2010. Please let me know whether the creditors' committee has investigated and evaluated potential avoidance actions and whether the creditors' committee intends to timely prosecute any avoidance actions for the benefit of general, unsecured creditors. Thank you.
